

AUN-KU : International Energy Science Seminar

This multidisciplinary seminar is designed to study current energy technologies, world and regional energy situations and policies as well as environmental issue for graduate school students. This particular seminar will be devoted to interlink to ASEAN and Japanese (KU) energy issues by lectures from senior researchers, student presentations and group discussions. Field study trip will be included to enhance the individual knowledge.

Tentative Program : (15 January – 22 January, 2012)

Place: Kyoto University, Kyoto Japan

Date	Schedule
15 Jan.	◆Arrival in Japan
16 Jan.	◆Guidance, Introduction of Kyoto University, ◆Current Situation of Energy Supply and Demand, Energy Efficiency and Energy Policy
17 Jan.	◆Lectures on Energy Technologies (Solar PV, Bio fuels, Energy materials)
18 Jan.	◆Student Presentations, Group Discussion I
19 Jan.	◆wrap up discussion ◆dent Presentations, Group Discussion II
20 Jan.	◆Field study trip
21 Jan.	◆Closing ceremony
22 Jan.	◆Leave Japan

Kyoto University Clock Tower Centennial Hall